

COMPETITION TEAM POLICY

Decide it once, write it down, and hand it to every member who joins the team. It settles the "who pays for that?" conversation before it happens in a parking lot.

Gym: _____

1 WHO'S ON THE TEAM

☐ Opt-in ☐ Try-outs ☐ Invitation only

A member stays on the team if they've competed, or registered for an event, in the last _____ months.

Try-outs (if used) happen every _____

2 WHO RUNS IT

Head coach: _____

Picks the events: _____

Corners on the day: _____

Films and takes photos: _____

3 WHO PAYS FOR WHAT

COST	GYM	MEMBER	SPLIT	LIMIT OR NOTES
Mat time	☐	☐	☐
Coach hours	☐	☐	☐
Entry fees	☐	☐	☐
Travel	☐	☐	☐
Team gear	☐	☐	☐
Photos and video	☐	☐	☐

A simple starting point: members pay their own entries and travel, the gym covers the competition class and the coach's time, and the team shirt is on the house.

If the gym subsidizes entries, the cap is _____ entries per member every _____, up to $_____ each.

4 TRAINING

Competition class: _____ at _____

Extra open mat before big events: _____

Our promise to everyone else: competition intensity stays in the competition class. Regular classes stay exactly as welcoming as they are today.

5 POSTING AND CONSENT

☐ We ask before posting any member's match, win or loss.

☐ Minors: written parent consent is on file before any photo or video goes up.

☐ Results get a shout-out in class the Monday after an event.

6 THIS SEASON'S EVENTS

EVENT	DATE	REGISTRATION DEADLINE	WEIGH-IN	WHO'S GOING

7 AFTER EVERY EVENT

Within a week, the coach talks to each competitor, win or lose: what went well, what to work on, and the next event on the calendar. Anyone who decides competing isn't for them stays welcome in regular classes, no questions asked.
